放課後の王子様

新連載 第2回！

原案・監修 許斐剛

漫画 佐倉ケンイチ

* A tribute to Mr. and Takeshi's manga by Kenichi Sakura

Behind you

The lunch of the Prince of tennis pt 1

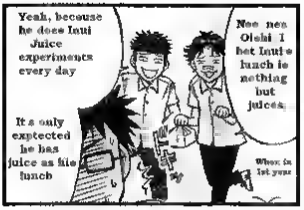
Honestly speaking I can't help but be a little jealous of a lunch like this.
It is a violation of my pride!
A son shouldn't be ashamed of their mother's thoughtfulness!!

The lunch of the Prince of Tennis pt 2

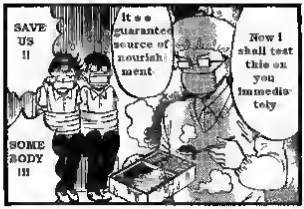
As always Momoshiro's lunch consists of an assortment of leftovers.
Last night I made an onigiri with all the side dishes included in it!
EH?!

Wait— are you competing? You are competing, aren't you Ryoma-kun!
Angry!
It's like this. I need to be ready for my debut, arranged to be a year from now
This is unusual!!

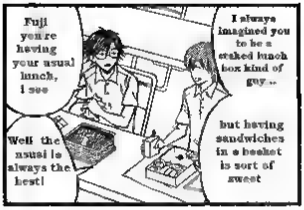
The lunch of the Prince of tennis pt 3



Yeah, because he does Inui Juice experiments every day
It's only expected he has juice as his lunch
Nee nee Oishi I bet Inui's lunch is nothing but juices.
Whoa! In 1st year



The lunch of the Prince of Tennis pt 4



Fuji you're having your usual lunch, I see
Well the usual is always the best!
I always imagined you to be a stake and lunch box kind of guy...
but having sandwiches in a basket is sort of sweet

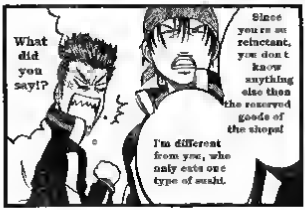
The lunch of the Prince of Tennis pt 5



What did you say!?
Since you're so reluctant, you don't know anything else than the reserved goods of the shops!
I'm different from you, who only eats one type of sushi.

I don't know what's my role in this, but please stop fighting because of me!!
W-wait!
This is bad! Momo and Kaidou started fighting because of Taka-san!

Body Tape

No, it's quite the opposite! I'm happy that my strong points are praised like that!
If "Just a serve!" is said to that extent, don't you feel overwhelmed?
You're like a women magnet, huh?

For happiness' sake

Oh... It had no meaning like that.
That Gekakujou is really different in talking style now...
A low rank person will receive the higher ranking person's status and influence!

A history

It's not Atobe?
I wonder who is the one searching for some baths every day?
In the searching page's history log is "Rose bath".
I wonder who searched for that?
There is a PC in the Hyoutei's club room

Urban legends, huh?
"Hanaka san"
"Satoru kun"
You didn't search for it?
And I was searching for what again?
This must be Hiyoshi's doing

I did nothing of the likes of that, you guys...
We got to see another lovable thing about Atobe!
He did some research on common people's lives!
It's like he's trying to create communication between us!

Body type part 2

Ooh! And that is?
Oshitari senpai! I've been thinking since that time!
There is one strong point in Oshitari senpai that has to be praised!

Only the glasses!? They're my strong point? Um, you bastard
It's the glasses!
Wouldn't your "Everything" have been better than that!?
It's only the glasses!

Notes on the Hyoutei Internet searching site parody:

* Hanako-san:

Hanako san is supposed to be a girl ghost, that resides in the 4th toilet stall of the girl's bathroom in every elementary school. It is said that she commited suicide due to bullying, but she is known to be there just for no reason.

* Satoru-kun

This story reminds me of the Bloody Mary story. Satoru-kun is said to be all-knowing and you can summon him by making a call to your cellphone with a public phone. You are to say "Satoru, Satoru, please come here. Satoru, Satoru, please show yourself. Satoru, Satoru, please answer me if you're there." and hang up. Within 24 hours he will call you back to your turned-turned-off cell phone. He will call many times, until he's right behind you and you must ask your question immediately, not looking at him. If you do either wrong, he'll drag you to the underworld.

* * *Umaibou

This is a pastry kind of snack that comes in many flavours varying from chocolate to takoyaki (squid dumpling flavoured). This sweet/snack can be found in most of the super market around Japan, smallest of them carrying only a few flavours on sale.
